

Addressing the challenge of survivorship

Cancer Council SA

invites you to a

Free seminar for all health professionals

Presenters

Prof Bogda Koczwara: Medical Oncologist, Director—Cancer Services, Head of Dept —Dept of Medical Oncology, Southern Area Service, Co-director—Flinders Centre for Innovation in Cancer, President Elect—Clinical Oncology Society of Australia.

Amanda Robertson: Flinders Survivorship Clinic, Nurse Practitioner Candidate—Medical Oncology and Survivorship Care Coordinator, Flinders Medical Centre.

Alison Keenan: Nurse Coordinator of a Long Term Follow-Up clinic, The Queen Elizabeth Hospital

When: Monday 21 November 2011, 5:30 pm (for 6:00 pm start) to 8:30 pm

Where: Cancer Council SA, Function Room
202 Greenhill Rd Eastwood
Parking at rear of building or opposite side of Greenhill Road.

RSVP: by 4 pm 18 November to Cancer Council Helpline 13 11 20 or chl@cancersa.org.au

Certificates provided for PD for health professionals.

Time	Topic
5:30 pm	Registration and refreshments
6:00 pm	Introduction and Welcome to Country
6:05 pm	What is meant by the term cancer survivorship?—Professor Bogda Koczwara
6:30 pm	Survivor experiences—first-hand accounts by Margit Keogh and Ian Basey
6:55 pm	Providing direction when treatment is completed—Amanda Robertson
7:05 pm	Snapshot of late effects—Alison Keenan
7:15 pm	Questions and break
7:40 pm	How can we best meet survivorship needs in SA? What will help? Facilitator—Caroline Miller, General Manager, Cancer Control, Cancer Council SA
8:15 pm	Summary and evaluation
8:30 pm	Close

